Reports Analysis DivisionRe: 2/04/05 FEC Letter to the Lyndon LaRouche Political Action Committee

Dear Mr. Morse:

Please be advised that I represent the Lyndon LaRouche Political Action Committee and its treasurer, Barbara M. Boyd, generally, and with regard to the matters raised in your December 15, 2004, December 23, 2004, and February 4, 2005 letters to the Committee. The Committee has previously responded to your December 15, 2004 letter and your December 23, 2004 letters and now responds to the matters raised in your February 4, 2005 letter.

The FEC's letter was occasioned by review of the Committee's 30 day Post-General Election Report and seeks information concerning a possible failure to file or timely file 24 hour notices concerning certain last minute independent expenditures. Attached to the FEC's letter is a chart listing the expenditures which the FEC questions.

As stated in the Committee's two previous responses, the Committee's Assistant Treasurer mistakenly applied the old method for reporting independent expenditures under the 24 hour rule to all of the independent expenditures reported by the Committee. Under the old rule, a reporting obligation was triggered when an actual expenditure of funds was made. In the Assistant Treasurer's understanding, the reporting obligation was triggered under the new 48 hour rule when $5,000 was actually spent on a communication. The 24 hour reporting obligation was triggered when $1,000 was
